Vision of Institute

Our institutional vision for growing minds is,

“To be a dedicated educational institution that prepares learners from rural backgrounds for productive careers by providing them with a student-centred practically beneficial quality learning experience.”

Introduction

The institute uniquely focuses on implementing extension activities that provide socio-economic benefits to students and the local community. Extension activities, an essential aspect of education, emphasize community service and are often integrated into the curriculum as opportunities for students to help, serve, reflect, and learn. This curriculum-extension interface holds significant educational value, particularly for rural India. Therefore, our institution annually engages students and staff in various socially beneficial extension activities, raising awareness among all stakeholders about our collective responsibilities toward society.

Objectives

The 1,2,3 Objectives Behind our Extension activities

The primary objective of extension activities is to foster social awareness among students by providing opportunities to work with communities. This approach aims to enhance their understanding of social realities, cultivate a sense of responsibility for community welfare, and engage them in meaningful societal development.

Practicability and Implementation:

To achieve this, our institution actively encourages students to participate in initiatives such as the National Service Scheme (NSS) and various government welfare programs, including Jalshakti Abhiyan and Swacchta Action Plan. These programs enable students to become socially responsible citizens. We believe that establishing a strong foundation requires more than just theoretical knowledge; it necessitates practical and behavioural learning. By focusing solely on academic knowledge, we cannot fully prepare students to be educated and responsible members of society.

Importance:

To cultivate students as genuine and responsible citizens, we aim to conduct extension activities focused on personality development and enhancing socially beneficial skills. It is the moral responsibility of teachers and educational institutions to ensure comprehensive development. To achieve this, we emphasize the importance of implementing extra-curricular and co-curricular activities that contribute to students' overall growth.
